

Calling all Members!

We need your input and we are eager to hear from you! There are many opportunities for participation and involvement now, so please read on. The links will lead you to our website for more information or you can email the appropriate individuals for more information. Read on....

VOTES and BALLOTS

APA President-elect: If you haven't already, voted for APA President-elect, please do so NOW! Three of our members are on the ballot: James Bray, Carol Goodheart and Ron Rozensky. VOTE—and tell your friends to vote too! Be sure you rank all three.

Apportionment Ballot: Please be sure you send back your apportionment ballot. These vote allocations determine how many representatives the Division will have in the APA Council of Representatives—the policy and financial decision making body of APA. This is tremendously important! Don't throw your ballot away!

HONORS and AWARDS

APA Fellows: Please check the Division 29 website www.divisionofpsychotherapy.org for information on how to make nominations for APA Fellow. Chair Dr. Jeffrey Magnavita (magnapsych@aol.org) looks forward to this opportunity to honor our members. Deadline for nominations is December 15th for new fellows. If you are not applying for new fellow status, but are a current APA fellow, this process is on-going but don't delay.

Division Awards: Now is the time to make nominations for the Awards presented by Division 29 in recognition of the accomplishments of our members. The awards we will present at convention 2008 are --Distinguished Psychologist,

-- APF Division 29 Early Career Award, and
--NEW THIS YEAR: Award for Distinguished Contributions to Teaching and Mentoring.
Please check the Division 29 website www.divisionofpsychotherapy.org for information on how to make nominations for these awards. Chair Jean Carter is delighted to have this opportunity to honor our members. Deadline for nominations is January 1, 2008. The special, first-year deadline for the Teaching and Mentoring award is March 1, 2008

NOMINATIONS and ELECTIONS

The Nominations ballot is currently posted on the website, and will arrive soon in the Bulletin. Please make nominations for the following positions (all begin January 2009):

President-elect
Secretary
NEW Domain Representative for Public Interest and Social Justice

Nominations chair Nadine Kaslow (nkaslow@emory.edu) is looking forward to this opportunity to build slates of leaders for our division governance. Deadline for nominations is December 31, 2007. Take the time now to print the Nominations ballot and nominate yourself or someone else for one of these positions. www.divisionofpsychotherapy.org

PUBLICATIONS OPENINGS

We are seeking new editors for both the Psychotherapy Bulletin and the Website/internet publications (web experience desired, tech support available.) These provide exciting opportunities for connecting with our members and advancing the work of the Division. If you are interested, or you have nominations, please contact Publications Board Chair Ray DiGiuseppe (digiuser@stjohns.edu). For more information, and to see a complete description of the Bulletin editor position and the website editor position, visit our website at www.divisionofpsychotherapy.org

Lots of ways to be involved! We also always welcome people to serve on committees and to help with Division projects. Please contact either President Jean Carter (jcarterphd@aol.com) or President-elect Jeff Barnett (drjbarnett1@comcast.net) if you would like to participate in the governance activities of the Division.

Jean Carter, President, 2007
