

DIVISION OF PSYCHOTHERAPY (29) AMERICAN PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION

Enter the Annual Division of Psychotherapy Student Competitions

The APA Division of Psychotherapy offers three student paper competitions:

- The Donald K. Freedheim Student Development Award for the best paper on psychotherapy theory, practice or research.
- The Diversity Award for the best paper on racial/ethnic gender, and cultural issues in psychotherapy.
- The Mathilda B. Canter Education and Training Award for the best paper on education, supervision or training of psychotherapists.

What are the benefits to you?

- Cash prize of $100 for the winner of each contest.
- Enhance your curriculum vitae and gain national recognition.
- Plaque presented at the Division 29 Awards Ceremony in Chicago at the annual meeting of the American Psychological Association in August.
- Abstract will be published in the Psychotherapy Bulletin, the official publication of the Division of Psychotherapy.

What are the requirements?

- Papers must be based on work conducted by the first author during his/her graduate studies. Papers can be based on (but are not restricted to) Master's thesis or doctoral dissertation. All papers must be unpublished manuscripts, and in case of multiple authorship, one award will be given.

How do you apply for the competition?

- Submit an electronic copy of your paper, in MS-Word or PDF format, as an email attachment to Adam Leventhal at aleventhal@uh.edu before April 30, 2006
- Please do not submit papers though postal mail or fax, we are only accepting electronic submissions.
- Papers should be in APA style, not to exceed 25 pages in length (including tables, figures, and reference) and should not list the authors' names or academic affiliations.
- Please include a title page as part of a separate attached MS-Word or PDF document so that the papers can be judged "blind." This page can include authors' names and academic affiliations.
- Also include a cover letter as part of a separate of a separate attached MS-Word or PDF document. The cover letter should state that the paper is based on work that the first author conducted while in graduate school. It should also include your mailing address, telephone number, and e-mail address.
