

DIVISION OF PSYCHOTHERAPY (29) AMERICAN PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION

Enter the Annual Division of Psychotherapy Student Competitions

The APA Division of Psychotherapy offers four student paper competitions:

- The Donald K. Freedheim Student Development Award for the best paper on psychotherapy theory, practice or research.
- The Diversity Award for the best paper on racial/ethnic gender, and cultural issues in psychotherapy.
- The Mathilda B. Canter Education and Training Award for the best paper on education, supervision or training of psychotherapists.
- The Jeffrey E. Barnett Psychotherapy Research paper Award for the best paper that addresses psychotherapist factors that may impact treatment effectiveness and outcomes, to include type of training, amount of training, professional degree or discipline of the psychotherapist, and the role of psychotherapists' personal characteristics.

What are the benefits to you?

- Cash prize of $250 for the winner of each contest.
- Enhance your curriculum vitae and gain national recognition.
- Plaque and check presented at the Division 29 Awards Ceremony at the annual meeting of the American Psychological Association (August 4-7, 2011)
- Abstract will be published in the Psychotherapy Bulletin, the official publication of the Division of Psychotherapy.

What are the requirements?

- Papers must be based on work conducted by the first author during his/her graduate studies. Papers can be based on (but are not restricted to) a masters thesis or a doctoral dissertation.
- Papers should be in APA style, not to exceed 25 pages in length (including tables, figures, and references) and should not list the authors' names or academic affiliations.
- Please include a title page as part of a separate attached MS-Word or PDF document so that the papers can be judged "blind." This page can include authors' names and academic affiliations.
- Also include a cover letter as part of a separate attached MS-Word or PDF document. The cover letter should attest that the paper is based on work that the first author conducted while in graduate school. It should also include the first author's mailing address, telephone number, and e-mail address.
